

July 2009

Kira Florita

Executive Director, Leadership Music

Kira Florita is currently the Executive Director of Leadership Music, an educational 501c3 non-profit founded in 1989, Florita has served this organization since September of 2004 and is an alumni of the Class of 2000. In this capacity she directs day-to-day operations; supervises and supports Committee and Alumni activities / events; facilitates fundraising, Program planning, industry relationships, and strategic alliances. Annual events include the LM Digital Summit, a day-long conference on digital music, and the LM Dale Franklin Award, honoring business or artistic leaders such as Tony Brown, Gerry House, Emmylou Harris and Frances Preston.